Novice Learning Benefit Trial Information

Two Novice Learning Trials – NN and PN – Saturday, December 17, 2022

Trial information: Morning and afternoon trials. Entry limit: 15 dogs per trial. Each handler is limited to two dogs per trial (unless the trials do not fill in the initial period – see below). Fully fenced field, mixed breed stock.. ProNovice may require a small cross drive. There will be water, a porta pot and sanitation supplies available at the site. Participants should bring their own shade and chairs and wear masks at their discretion. This is a learning trial and all participants should plan to help in some way -learning to help at trials is an important aspect of promoting future trials.

After the first run, handlers will have time to go over their run, make adjustments, get input, and learn from others to try to learn for future runs.

Judge: Billy Bishop

Fee - $30 per run. There will be a morning and an afternoon trial. The initial entry period is November 3 through November 17. All entries received during this time will be regarded equally and if there are more entries than available runs, a draw will be held and wait list established. Entries received after November 17 will be accommodated if there is space or placed at the end of the wait list.

Third dog entries will be accepted if the trial does not fill in the opening period. Day of trial non-competitive runs may be available if there is space.

Note: You can enter the morning or afternoon trial or both. See forms below.
